Welcome to The 40th Annual South Miami Art Festival!

Presented by Chamber South, The South Miami Art Festival is sponsored in part by First National Bank of South Miami, with support from the Miami-Dade County Cultural Affairs Department, and Tourist Development Council.

The festival held on Sunset Drive in South Miami (between US1 and Red Road) nestled between wide sidewalks, cafés, quaint shops and lush landscaping. The event features more than 100 artist booths from around the country.

Media such as painting, glass, jewelry, metal work, digital art, mixed media, drawing, graphics, photography, clay, sculpture, and wood will be represented. International food vendors featuring a wide array of cuisine will be available in addition to musical entertainment and special features for children.

As part of a juried art show, artists will be judged at the show and will be honored with cash awards in the following categories: painting, mixed media, printmaking, drawing, digital art, photography, clay, glass, sculpture, jewelry, metal work, wood, fiber, and leather.

We hope you enjoy the show!

Meet the Winner

2011 Poster Winner

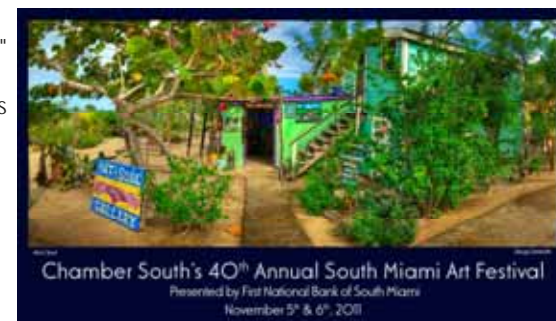

Doug Cavanah

Doug Cavanah is an outdoor photographer who specializes in large format panoramic photographs. A Florida native, he began landscape photography in 1999. Previously Doug owned a frame and art gallery for nearly two decades. His work reflects his love for the outdoors and the unique shooting style combines dramatic lighting and strong compositions. Using light and weather as the "paint" of his photographic palette, his photographs possess a powerful life size dimension. Doug's photographic travels have included destinations in Europe, the South Pacific, Central America, the Caribbean and throughout the United States.

These photographs are shot on film using a 4"X10" large format view camera. Each transparency is then scanned and printed to match the original image. The photographs are printed on canvas using archival pigmented inks guaranteed to last a lifetime.

2011 T-Shirt Art Winner

Tony Mendoza

Artist Tony Mendoza was born in New York to Cuban parents, but raised in the Little Havana neighborhood of Miami. He creates images and vignettes of Little Havana, perpetuating in his acrylics the Cuban heritage in a primitive-expressionistic style full of vibrant color.

Mendoza's art has been described as cartoon & pop-art because of its signature bold color and cheerfulness. It reflects his Little Havana upbringing.
